MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING AND AGREEMENT

BETWEEN

FEDERAL BUREAU OF PRISONS
UNITED STATES PENITENTIARY, ATLANTA, GEORGIA

AND

ATLANTA CITY DETENTION CENTER

I. PURPOSE: This Memorandum of Understanding and Agreement between the Federal Bureau of Prisons (BOP) United States Penitentiary, Atlanta, Georgia and the Atlanta Detention Center establishes the responsibilities of each organization during law enforcement emergencies and when training or resources are requested.

II. DEFINITIONS: For the purposes of this Memorandum of Understanding, a "law enforcement emergency" means an unusual situation which requires law enforcement intervention, and which is, or which threatens to be of serious proportions, and local resources are inadequate to protect the lives and property of citizens or to enforce the criminal law in a situation identified as requiring prompt action.

III. AGREEMENT: The parties hereby agree as follows:

1. General Provisions Regarding Extent of Assistance Bureau of Prisons Staff May Provide: Pursuant to national policies of the Federal Bureau of Prisons, the types of assistance provided by USP Atlanta staff may not extend into operations such as crowd control for general public safety projects or for the enforcement of laws associated with scheduled public events. The basis for this limitation is the boundaries and the scope of Bureau of Prisons expertise, which is generally limited to correctional management issues. Bureau of Prisons staff, including USP Atlanta staff, ordinarily are not expected to become involved in situations requiring the use of force outside of the correctional environment. When a particular situation necessitates the use of force (e.g., for self-protection), the force used may not be beyond that specified within the Bureau of Prisons' own policies.
2. Logistical Support: During law enforcement emergencies, USP Atlanta may provide the Atlanta Detention Center with emergency supplies such as blankets, food, clothing, medical supplies, machinery, vehicles, and other emergency mechanical equipment. Personnel from USP Atlanta will normally be utilized to operate all equipment, machinery and vehicles that are made available to the Atlanta Detention Center unless the Atlanta Detention Center has indicated its personnel are competent to use such equipment, machinery and vehicles. Use of any and all supplies, equipment, machinery and vehicles will be provided to the Atlanta Detention Center only until the emergency situation is controlled and the public safety is no longer endangered.

3. Weapons, Ammunition, And Chemical Agents: Due to limited resources available at USP Atlanta and the need for the institution to consistently maintain the security and good order of its inmate population, the Atlanta Detention Center will not ordinarily request USP Atlanta to provide emergency assistance in the form of weapons, ammunition, or chemical agents except in the most extreme emergency situations in which all other possible sources of assistance have been exhausted. In extreme situations in which all other possible sources have been exhausted, the Warden or his/her designee, after due consideration of available resources and institutional security needs, may provide the Atlanta Detention Center with weapons, ammunition, and chemical agents. Pursuant to the national policies of the Federal Bureau of Prisons, under no circumstances will USP Atlanta provide weapons, ammunition, or chemical agents to the Atlanta Detention Center without first having received written certification from the Atlanta Detention Center specifying those personnel who are competent and qualified in the use of weapons, ammunition, and chemical agents of the type USP Atlanta may provide. USP Atlanta staff may not use weapons, ammunition, or chemical agents to assist the Atlanta Detention Center in response to any emergency unless authorized by the Deputy Attorney General or the Director of the Bureau of Prisons.
4. Routine Duties or Functions: When requested by the Atlanta Detention Center and authorized by the Wardens or designee, USP Atlanta staff may be used to support or replace the Atlanta Detention Center staff during long term emergency situations in a support role. This assistance may include manning command posts, victim/family support, mental health experts, or other support functions in order to permit the Atlanta Detention Center staff to perform primary law enforcement duties for the duration of the emergency situation.
5. Emergency Transportation: The United States Penitentiary, Atlanta, Georgia may provide, as available, four (4) 40 passenger prison buses and four (4) 10 passenger escort vans for the purpose of transporting inmates incarcerated in the Atlanta Detention Center upon request. Qualified staff from the United States Penitentiary will be assigned as drivers for all vehicles. Sufficient staff must be assigned from the Atlanta Detention Center to provide and maintain security on board each vehicle. The United States Penitentiary will not be considered to have assumed custody of inmates that are being transported in vehicles provided by United States Penitentiary. The Atlanta Detention Center will not be considered to have assumed custody of inmates that are being transported in vehicles provided by the Atlanta Detention Center.

6. Detention: The United States Penitentiary Atlanta, Georgia may take inmates from the Atlanta Detention Center into custody. Detention of inmates from the Atlanta Detention Center will be contingent upon the conclusion of the emergency situation or until arrangements have been made for the transportation of the inmates who are temporarily detained by the United States Penitentiary, Atlanta, Georgia to an alternate facility. Inmates from the Atlanta Detention Center may also be temporarily detained on board transport vehicles, buses or vans, for the expedited transportation to another facility.
7. Medical Support: USP Atlanta may provide qualified medical personnel as a support element in the event of a serious law enforcement emergency involving the Atlanta Detention Center operation. This assistance may include the use of medical equipment and supplies when the training and expertise of the requested medical personnel is warranted.
8. External Hostage Negotiation: USP Atlanta may provide the Atlanta Detention Center with trained and qualified hostage negotiators to furnish assistance in the form of background guidance and consultation. Active participation in negotiations by USP Atlanta personnel is prohibited without first obtaining the approval of the Regional Director of the Southeast Region of the Bureau of Prisons.

11. Requests For Assistance: Under normal operating conditions, or when anticipated, any request for assistance pursuant to this MOU will be made in writing at least fourteen (14) in advance by either the Warden of USP Atlanta or the Atlanta Detention Center or designee. When time does not permit, a facsimile request may be made. In case of extreme emergency, a telephonic request may be made.

Nothing in this agreement shall be construed to obligate the Atlanta Detention Center or the Federal Bureau of Prisons to any expenditure or obligation of funds in violation of state law or the Anti-Deficiency Act, 31 U.S. Section 1341. Each party shall be responsible for any liability arising from its own conduct and retain immunity and all defenses available to them pursuant to federal law [and state law if a state agency is the other party]. Neither party agrees to insure, defend, or indemnify the other party.

IV. TERMS OF THE AGREEMENT: This MOU will become effective upon the date of final signatures of all parties, as designated below. The Warden of USP Atlanta and the Atlanta City Detention Center or designee will review this agreement annually.
